

Erasmus+ Mobility in Turin

- We lived in Turin for three weeks on October
- It was really nice weather, always sunny
- Had a practise in 3 different companies
- There was no rain for about a month
- A lot of air pollution because of the fire and dry air

«Foto Rana»

«Foto Rana»

«Foto Rana»

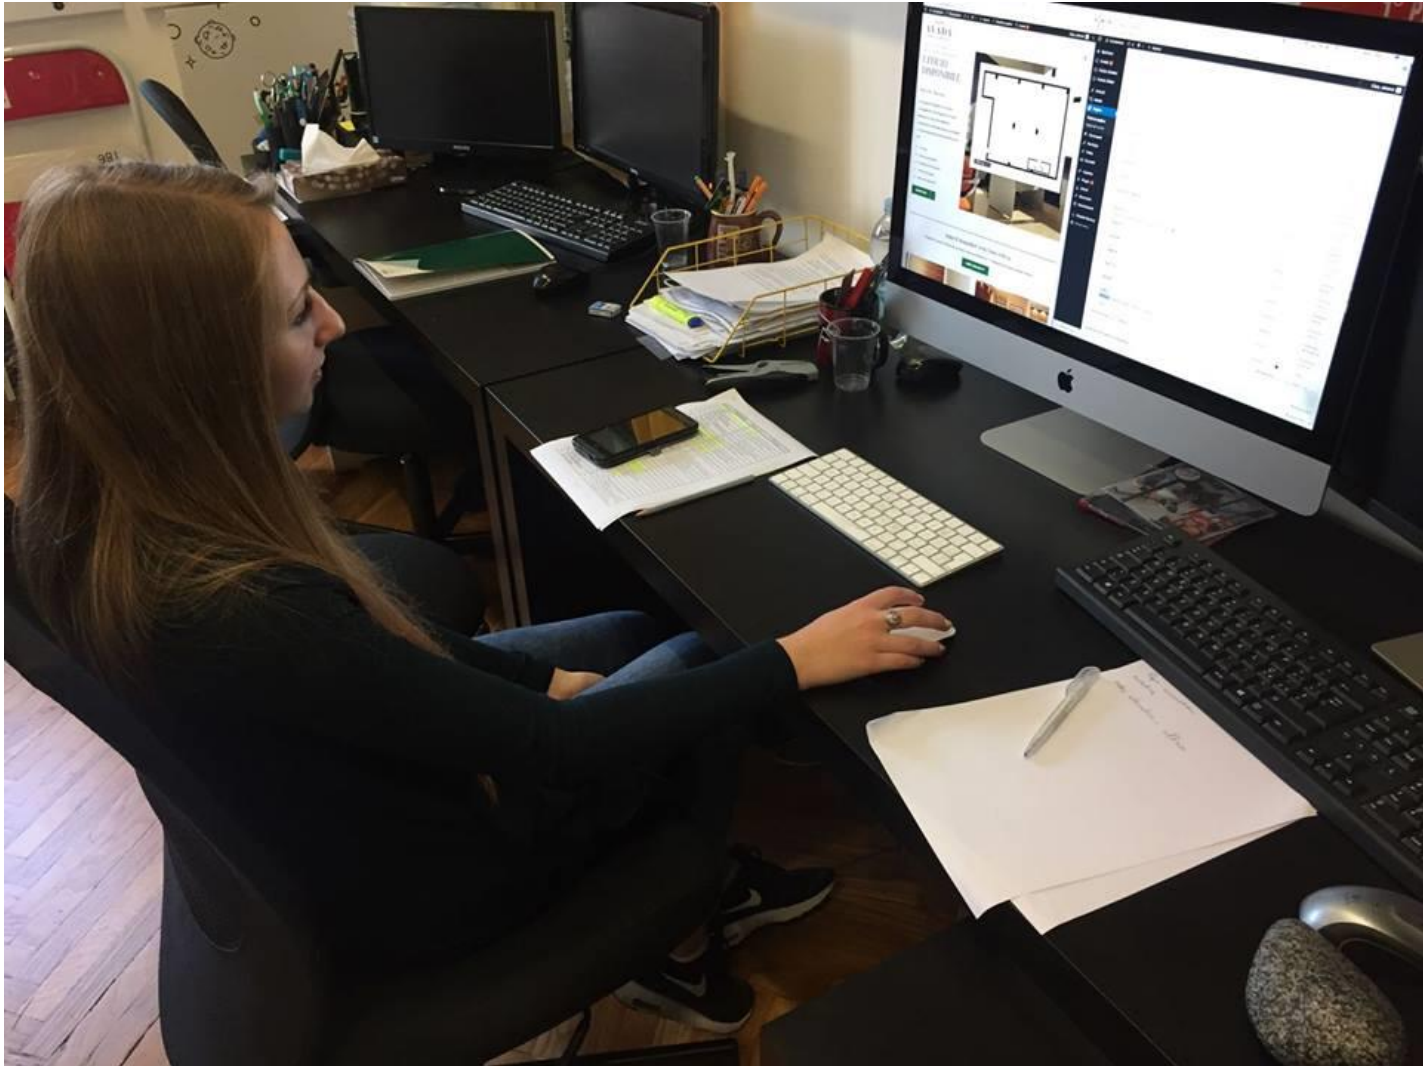

«Foto Rana»

«MC grafica»

«MC grafica»

«Foto Teos»

«Foto Teos»

«Foto Teos»

«Foto Teos»

«Foto Teos»

Turin, Italy

- Turin's size is about three times smaller than Riga; however population is about the same as in Riga
- Beautiful old town
- Prices were a lot higher than in Latvia
- A lot of recycle bins all over the city on the streets
- Italians are allowed to get into shops and restaurants with their dogs

Turin, Italy

- They have trams, buses and metro
- Italians are not hurrying
- Driving their cars dangerously
- Streets are washed every morning
- Siesta – break in the middle of the day, so shops and restaurants are closed
- You have to lift up your hand if you want to get bus stopped on the bus stop

Turin, Italy

- Drinking only espresso
- Meal can take a several hours
- Saying ČAO when meeting and saying goodbye
- Every day can be a holiday
- Monday is super lazy day
- Don't speak english very well

Food

- Traditional food – pasta, pizza, lasagna
- Tasty ice – cream
- Eating raw meat
- Small choice of milk products
- Eating a lot of white bread; food made by white flour

SOUFFLÉ DUE LUNE

Soufflé* al cioccolato,
servito con topping
al cioccolato
e panna montata

APPLE PIE

NOVITÀ

frolla (senza uova)
alla ricoperta
servita

Torta* con crema al formaggio
colorato con succo
di ciliegia

CAKE

cake*, servita con topping
al formaggio, con
(e zucchero a velo)

KA
fiordilatte
ella*,
montata,
colato
la ole

alla nocciola,
Brownie*,
topping alle
arachidi,
panna montata
e arachidi

#losaicheoww

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Turin in photos

Thank you!